TRELLIS BLOCKS

Whether for practical partitioning or purely decorative purposes, trellis block walling products are all you need to build attractive, sturdy stone divisions in and around your home. Trellis blocks, pilasters and coping products can be used to create an enclosure for the porch, a fixed boundary wall, a screen for a car port, patio or terrace, a vegetable patch divider or even just something to give extra privacy around a swimming pool.

Trellis block walling comes to life when sunlit, creating and accentuating designs using the effects of light and shade providing shelter, support and all around natural sunlight, trellis block walling will also serve as an ideal backdrop for climbing plants or creepers.
